

I want to be class councillor because I would be a good friend to everybody and be kind to everyone. I am the right person for the job because I play with everyone because I'm really kind. Even when people aren't nice to me or others, I am kind to them. If you vote for me, I will ask all of the other children what they think would make the school better, so that I know I am doing what everyone wants.

Layla Durrance, Hedgehogs